

Immigration Emergency Rooms

Constituency Offices and Assistants as the Front Line of Immigration in Canada

Danièle Bélanger

Laurence Simard-Gagnon

Adèle Garnier

Gabriel Bergevin-Estable

Webinar
June 15, 2023
12pm to 1pm

In 2021, members of the Canada Research Chair in Global Migration Processes investigated how Canada's federal constituency offices provide immigration services to constituents.

Webinar link

ulaval.zoom.us/j/61982681396?pwd=b25TL0xia20yNVAzSHZ-FazM4eXJPUT09

ID meeting : Secret code :
619 8268 1396 598779

The Chair and the Équipe de Recherche sur l'Immigration au Québec et Ailleurs (ERIQA) invite you to the launch of the project's report. The report highlights the unique role that constituency offices play for those in need of immigration assistance. For the first time, constituency assistants had the opportunity to speak up about their work on immigration, which has become essential to the migration pathways of thousands of people.

Find the report here (will be launched on June 15)

dynamiques-migratoires.chaire.ulaval.ca/en/research/publication

Global Migration Processes
Canada research chair

Faculté de foresterie,
de géographie
et de géomatique

UNIVERSITÉ
LAVAL